

Junior League’s “Deck the Palms” runs Nov. 20-21 at Palm Beach Outlets

SPECIAL TO FLORIDA WEEKLY

You didn’t imagine it — there are Christmas trees at the local home centers. That means it’s the season for holiday shopping. The Junior League of the Palm Beaches, now in its 80th milestone year, will kick off its 12th annual Deck the Palms Boutique Market outdoors at the Palm Beach Outlets in West Palm Beach on Friday evening, Nov. 20, from 5 to 9 p.m. and will continue through Saturday, Nov. 21, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Chairs for the 2020 Deck the Palms are JLPB members Rebecca Fordham and Susan Christiansen.

“With the health and safety concerns associated with the present COVID-19 pandemic in mind, JLPB has re-imagined the Deck the Palms Boutique Market as an outdoor event with the implementation of physical distancing and safety precautions being our top priority,” Ms. Fordham said in a statement.

The Boutique Market is a shopping event that features a variety of select local and international purveyors of fine goods including jewelry, home decor, men’s and women’s apparel, children’s goods, artisanal foods, and more. This year’s event features a number of special ticketed opportunities including a Friday Night Kick-off Reception with a live band, V.I.P. luxury lounge, and Princess and Pirate Entertainment Experience on Saturday.

“The safety of our guests, vendors and JLPB members is our top priority,” stated Julie Rudolph, president of JLPB, “Now more than ever it’s important to come together and help those in the community. Deck the Palms is not only a fun, holiday
