JUNIOR LEAGUE OF THE PALM BEACHES

Inaugural 'Into the Wild' gala a roaring success!

Saturday, March 7 — Palm Beach Zoo & Conservation Society, West Palm Beach

The Junior League of the Palm Beaches Inc. (JLPB) held its inaugural "Into the Wild" gala appropriately at the Palm Beach Zoo & Conservation Society. Chaired by Ashley Costa and Michelle Otremba, with celebrated artist and philanthropist Susan Cushing serving as honorary chair, the wild-tie event attracted more than 200 guests. It was an evening filled with unforgettable animal encounters, a live and silent auction, and dining and dancing under the stars.

JLPB President Laura Wissa remarked, "Into the Wild was an incredible event, where attendees enjoyed an elegant evening at the zoo, dancing and dining under the stars, while contributing to raising critical funds for the focus of our work: improving the lives of children in Palm Beach County."

Le Macaron and Rudolph Law were the event's Golden Leopard Sponsors; the Desich Family Foundation and Kathryn Vecellio were Silver Jaguar Sponsors; and Paula Butler, Palm Beach Medical and The Grand Tour were Bronze Panther Sponsors. Modern Luxury Palm Beach was the event's official magazine sponsor.

Since 1941 JLPB has been an integral part of the community. It is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. JLPB welcomes all women who value its mission and is committed to inclusive environments of diverse individuals, organizations and communities.

Throughout the year, JLPB members contribute more than 3,800 volunteer hours and donate more than $40,000 to support the mission of training volunteers, developing the potential of women and improving the South Florida community. For more information on becoming a member or to learn about the JLPB, call 561-689-7590 or visit JLPB.org.
