

Party Under the Palms

Junior League of the Palm Beaches celebrates 85th anniversary

SPECIAL TO FLORIDA WEEKLY

The Junior League of the Palm Beaches is marking a milestone this year—its 85th anniversary—with the launch of a brand-new signature event, “Party Under the Palms.” The event promises a blend of celebration, cocktails, and colorful Lilly Pulitzer prints, all for a good cause.

Guests are encouraged to embrace the theme by wearing “Lilly Pulitzer or louder” attire for a vibrant evening on Palm Beach featuring cocktails, canapés, and a silent auction.

“We are so incredibly proud to celebrate 85 years of phenomenal impact Junior League members have made throughout the Palm Beaches by giving of their time, knowledge and resources,” shared Kate Stamm, Junior League president.

Proceeds from “Party Under the Palms” will help establish a Little Library on the Cox Science Center’s new campus.

The Junior League of the Palm Beaches is an organization of women whose mission is to advance women’s leadership for meaningful community impact through volunteer action, collaboration, and training. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

Since its founding, JLPB has been a driving force, building a network of women committed to literacy, healthcare, and children’s services. Entirely volunteer-led, the League welcomes new members twice a year while offering training, leadership development, and opportunities to build lasting community partnerships.

“Party Under the Palms,” in partnership with Lilly Pulitzer, is on October 16 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at The Colony Hotel in Palm Beach. For more, visit jlpb.org. ■

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF THE PALM BEACHES / COURTESY PHOTO
Kate Stamm, Julie Rudolph and Michelle Otremba of the Junior League of the Palm Beaches