

Shelly Albright

2012-2013

- Undercurrents created a digital version. Facebook page reached 671 likes.
- JLPB's website was revamped and modernized.
- In addition to our 2 trainings for the leadership team, we created council trainings for the first time.
- Our new member class took on Kids in the Kitchen as their provisional project.
- Created a workshop for women who are interested in running for office or local leadership positions. The "Women on the Run" event allowed 35 women the chance to learn about the process.
- This JLPB year, GAP got a new name, GEMS, and we added boy detainees to the mix.
- Pink Palm provided 325 care packages for 6 different organizations.
- The Nelle Smith girls were starred in a Fashion Show.

Shelly Albright

2012-2013

- We received grants from Enterprise Rental Car $2,500, SiSpa $5,000, Florida Community Bank $5,000 and The Great Charity Challenge $100,000. Total contributions income: $107,862.05 (includes $100k grant, all other grants & contributions/donations from members to our programs & matching donations)
- We now have money in the bank to support our projects before we begin the year.
- The Town Hall, presented by our advocacy committee, at JLPB Headquarters gave speakers from the community a forum to share their knowledge of our advocacy priorities, while we were able to truly learn about our communities' issues.
- This year AJLI held a Hill Day during the annual conference. We were able to partner with Junior Leagues across the country in Washington DC to lobby for our issues!
- We reinstated the Historical Bus Tour for our New Member class. The actives and sustainers came too.

Shelly Albright

2012-2013

- We celebrated the South Florida Science Center and Aquarium this year through a special presentation during our Historical Bus Tour, the Family Fun Day and our Kids in the Kitchen event. On June 7th, we participated in the unveiling ceremony of the newly transformed Center.
- Community Open House for the grand opening of the Miami Children's Hospital Nicklaus Outpatient Center in Legacy Place.
- Developed Strategic Plan, voted on the Governance and Management split, created a Bylaws ad hoc committee and revised the bylaws that were presented and voted on in 2013/2014, Fund Development: added Grant Writing and Planning for 75th anniversary, Kicked off Issue Based Community Impact process and Nominating added application for slated positions and earlier vote on nominating committee .

Shelly Albright

2012-2013

- Heart of the League was created.
- Lead Active positions were created.
- First year that JLPB has had a Fundraising Council. Laura Wissa, acting as our very first Fundraising VP, We raised $102,962 through our fundraisers.
- We created a holiday market called Deck the Palms and held it out the South Florida Fairground.
- Raised more than $210,000, volunteered numerous hours, branded ourselves in the marketplace, and created a year full of wonderful memories and community impact!

