

Vicki Clark has devoted the past 25 years of her life to assisting nonprofit organizations and to building capacity in volunteer, membership based organizations, state governments, and congregations. Board development, inclusion and diversity, leadership, strategic planning, volunteer resource development, effective communications are just a few of the topics she provides to organizations to help them in their efforts to accomplish their missions.

A noted speaker, consultant and trainer, Vicki is a member of the Peter F. Drucker Foundation's training team, a Senior Governance Consultant for BoardSource (formerly the National Center for Nonprofit Boards) Literacy Powerline, and the Corporation for National and Community Service's VISTA training collaboration. She has served as trainer and consultant in a variety of national organizations and their local affiliates. These organizations include, the Association of Junior Leagues International, Interfaith Youth Corps, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, Prevent Child Abuse America, National CASA, National Council of LaRaza, and Association for Volunteer Administration, Literacy USA, United Way of America and the Association of African American Museums. Her international experience includes training and consulting in Venezuela and Russia. Vicki has also provided consultation for the Chattanooga Area Community Foundation, and The San Antonio Community Foundation.